

Explore These 14 Lavish Fort Lauderdale Residences And Skyrises

October, 2019

Fort Lauderdale's skyline is quickly evolving. With an endless number of cranes and construction zones around town, we put together this special selection of buildings that are new on the scene or currently still rising up from the sand.

This guide to high-rise living, featuring properties that are at least 10 stories, is the ultimate representation of our city's current real estate goals.

Riverwalk Residences of Las Olas

The baby boomer generation just got a little bit cooler. This $220 million project is bringing luxury senior living to downtown. Just steps from Las Olas with views of the city's skyline and Tarpon River, this property will blend city living and a waterfront lifestyle into 179 independent living units, 60 assisted living units and 39 memory care units plus two dedicated floors to those living with Alzheimer's disease or other forms of dementia. Amenities available to residents will include restaurants, a full-service spa, fitness center, theater, pool, valet and an event space.

Number of units: 278

Pricing: From $6,500/month for a one bedroom (inclusive of a yet-to-be-determined meal plan)

Number of floors: 42

Year completed: Slated for 2022

333 N. New River Drive E.; 333riverwalk.com

Fort Lauderdale Daily.com

Targets the Broward and Palm Beach counties affluent communities. Contains information on places to go, new developments in the area, calendar of cultural and social events, high-end fashion, and local celebrities.

UVM: 43,370

<https://www.fortlauderdale.com/features/explore-these-14-lavish-fort-lauderdale-residences-and-skyrises>